Impressive Funeral Services Over the Remains of Mrs. Hills.
The funeral over the remains of Mrs. Frank Hills occurred at her late home on California near Twenty-drat street at 1:30 p. m. A large number of symmathizing friends were present at the obsequies. No casket in Omaha was ever graced with so many floral gifts as hers. The rose, her favorite flower, abounded in all the lovely tributes, while calls illies, hyacisths and heliatrope were seen in profusion. Among the beautiful pieces was a harry and a couple of floral gates above which perched a dove; this was presented by Mr. Hills Union Pacific Friends. A splense of the profusion of the flower of the bereard has and, presented by Mrs. Lemon, Mrs. Shith and Mrs. Mayuard. Mrs. Hills, the mother of the bereard hashand, presented a duplicate of the deceased's wedding bouquet. The beautiful music was furnished by the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church, whose accompaniments the deceased had played for a number of years, while organist of that church. Rev. Dr. Merrill and Hev. Dr. Lemon conducted the funeral exercises in an impressive manner. At the close the pall bearers. J. H. McConnell, F. B. Brown, A. T. Rector, R. W. Breekenridge, S. W. Lindsay and A. S. Van Kuren couveyed the assist to the bearse. The remains were then taken to Forest Lawn whither they were followed by a long funeral cortoge.

BOY.

The President of a great University, perhaps more than any other person, understands the development of the boy into a man, the powers which need careful direction. and how best to train and mature them.

Many a boy wishes that, in a quiet way, he could have a talk with one of the great Col-lege Presidents, tell him of his inclinations and his hopes, and receive the valuable advice of such an experienced educator.

Especially is this true of a "backward boy," lacking confidence in himself, and needing wise encouragement at this critical time.

Every boy should read The Yours bould read the series of articles in The Youth's Companion, by the Presidents of three leading American Colleges, on The Backward Boy: How to Develophis Powers. They tell just what a boy needs to know, answer his questions, quiet his doubts, and stimulate his energies.
